To Collegiate Baseball Recruitment Staff,

My name is Jeremy Kirby. I am Max Chun's Varsity Coach at Santa Cruz High School. I coach the Santa Cruz Cardinals, Watsonville Aggies, and Rawhide Baseball Group. I myself played college baseball and have been heavily involved with baseball coaching and development for many years.

When I first met Max as a Junior, it was obvious that he had potential. The power in his lower body and basic fundamental skills were extremely strong. As a right handed line drive hitter and catcher, he fits extremely well into our program.

Max routinely led our team with BA, OBP, OPS, and Hits. We could count on him game after game to play near errorless defense as our starting catcher. He blocks and receives with the best of them and also sports a quick 1.96 pop time.

I would not only highly recommend that you consider recruiting Max Chun as a line drive hitting catcher, I would also strongly recommend that you consider him for his character as a young man and leadership on and off the field. I have coached hundreds of kids and I would not hesitate to say that Max Chun is absolutely one of the finest young men and baseball players I have had the privilege to coach.

Please do not hesitate to contact me should you need to discuss Max's baseball history further.

Sincerely,
