What is the NCAA Eligibility Center?

- Academic and Student-Athlete Certification Process
- Allows students to play sports for NCAA schools
- Eligibility Number is for Division 1 and 2 ONLY
- Visit <https://web3.ncaa.org/ecwr3/>

What is the NAIA Eligibility Center?

- The NAIA has its own Eligibility Center
- Visit playnaia.org/eligibility-center

NCAA Myths

- You need to sign up in order to get contacted by college coaches
- You need to sign up in order to contact college coaches yourself

These are both completely false. College coaches can contact you even if you don't have an NCAA Eligibility number, and you can contact them as well

Recommended Materials

- 1. Official transcript
- 2. A parent/guardian (if the student is completing the process)
- 3. A credit card (it's an $80 fee to register)

Fee Waiver

 please note there is a fee waiver available for those students who also received a waiver for their SAT or ACT's, be sure to check with your guidance counselor to see if you qualify.**

When to sign up

- You should sign up during the spring of your junior year
- Plan on at least an hour or more to complete your registration
